Mover: Greg Peele

Addendum 3: Motion 2022-29

Title: Motion to Endorse LPF Partisan Candidates

Motion: I move for LPBC to endorse the Libertarian partisan candidates for the November 2022 general election in Brevard:

- Hector Roos, Libertarian for Governor
- Jerry “Tub” Rorabaugh, Libertarian for Lt. Governor
- Dennis Misigoy, Libertarian for US Senate

Mover: Greg Peele

Addendum 4: Motion 2022-30

Title: Motion to Endorse Dontavious for Brevard D2

Motion: I move for LPBC to endorse Dontavious “Tay Duh Mayuh” Smith, NPA for Brevard County Commission District 2 in the November 2022 general election contingent on his acceptance of this endorsement.

Mover: Greg Peele

Rationale: While Dontavious is not a Libertarian, he is not a registered member of any other party and therefore is still eligible to receive our support. He is a frequent attendee of Brevard County Commission and of LP Brevard events, and while I believe he is more of a pragmatic centrist than a radical, I believe he shares many of our priorities including transparency of the Brevard government, solutions for the IRL, and improving Brevard’s fiscal responsibility and financial freedom. Certainly, I would prefer to see him elected over the Republican nominee (who per bylaws we would not be able to endorse anyways).

Addendum 5: Motion 2022-31

Title: Motion to Endorse NOTA for Brevard D4

Motion: I move for LPBC to endorse writing in “None of the Above” for Brevard County Commission District 4 in the November 2022 general election.

Mover: Greg Peele

Rationale: The D4 election was closed by filing a placeholder write-in candidate Joseph Michael Aiello; otherwise it would have been an open primary. Obviously, this will result in Rob Feltner being elected since he won the Republican primary, and the write-in candidate was mostly just a patsy to help that happen (as somewhat infamously disclosed on Curt Smith’s messages). So I cannot recommend endorsing Aiello. However, there will still be a write-in spot, and we can recommend people write in whatever they want in that spot. While “None of the Above” cannot be elected and likely won’t be counted, it would still show up as undervotes indicating disapproval of Feltner.
